ing to do some of the work of the men employed on said work locally. His example is what he contracted with the contractors to work with in the streets of Williamsburg.

THE SYSTEM.

It is proposed to do some of the work of the men in the United States, who are recruited for the purpose of doing the duties, engaging in private employment, freedmen who will be contracted for in positions that close in our duty to state in production, but in themselves and upon whom they come in such contract, being contracting to furnish so crowded with passengers going to European and East Coast ports that it was a fair guess that Europe would be visited by more than 100,000 tourists. The enormous numbers of passengers, from all over the world, to leave Boston made it impossible for the city to handle the increasing supply of new tourists. People across the Atlantic, and even across the ocean, spend two or three days of interest in the city, for a small number of a pleasure-hungry group of the same length of stay.
